

Homosexuality is Condemned

God is the author and creator of sex. It was God that designed and made male and female. He, in His infinite wisdom, designed to confine sex between a husband and his wife. Sex is not dirty or immoral, if it is limited to this special relationship:

"Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge." (Hebrews 13:4).

In His Word, God calls any sexual relationship outside of marriage fornication, and He strictly forbids it. The basic commandment is "Thou shalt not commit adultery" (Exodus 20:14).

In Leviticus 18:22, God specifically forbids homosexuality: "Thou shalt not lie with mankind as with womankind: it is abomination."

The Old Testament Law demanded the death penalty for homosexuality: "If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: They shall surely be put to death" (Leviticus 20:13).

The Bible calls such people Sodomites (Genesis 18-19, I Kings 15:12); effeminate (1 Corinthians 6:9); abusers of themselves (1 Corinthians 6:9); and them that defile themselves with mankind (I Timothy 1:10).

Homosexuality is a Choice

In one sense, no one chooses to become a homosexual any more than one chooses to become heterosexual. In the case of the homosexual, something has gone wrong in his or her development so that they are attracted to the same sex rather than the opposite. Then one day, a decision was made to cross a moral line and engage in a homosexual act. Some people immediately regret this decision, and never repeat it, but others repeat the experience again and again.

Repeated decisions to engage in sin lead to bondage, until one feels "trapped" and incapable of change. Many homosexuals have told me that they would "give anything to change", but they cannot.

Romans 1:17-32 shows that sexual sins are a choice, specifically in verses 25-26: "Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen. For this cause God gave them up to vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use for that which is against nature: And likewise the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men, working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet [fitting]."

But aren't some people born gay? No, but it is possible that due to genetics and environment, a person might be more likely to have homosexual desires or behaviors. That is in the same way it is possible for a person to be more likely to have any other behavior – such as anger, short temper, violence, or even good behaviors such as a compassionate heart or the desire to serve others.

Does having bad genetics or an awful childhood excuse the serial killer from being a murderer? Of course not! Would we excuse a bully, because he had abusive parents? It's the same with homosexuality.

Just because genetics or environment has made a person feel like they want to be with the same gender doesn't make it right.

The simple truth is every one of us are responsible for our choices.

Homosexuals have made the choice to fulfill a legitimate need (love, intimacy, pleasure, etc.) in an illegitimate way. That is the biblical definition of "sin."

Homosexuals Can be Converted

Although all sin is a serious matter, and some sins are worse than others. For example, Jesus told Pilate that the people who delivered him had "the greater sin". Romans 1 indicates that homosexuality is the bottom progression of sin.

Now, here is the good news: Jesus Christ died on the cross for every sin, including the sin of homosexuality.

"All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned everyone to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." (Isaiah 53:5-6)

The city of Corinth was a wicked city, but when Paul preached the Gospel there, many were saved, including some homosexuals:

"Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, no adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God." (1 Corinthians 6:9-11)

Notice the special word, "were"! God forgave their past. His blood washed their sin away!

Homosexuals Must Come to Christ

God's Word pronounces the fate of those who do not repent of their sins and receive Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Savior:

"And the angels who kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication [any sex outside of marriage], and going after strange flesh [homosexuality], are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire." (Jude 6-7)

Homosexuals and all other unrepentant sinners will receive the same condemnation as the angels that fell – eternal punishment in hell.

The most well-known verse of the Bible states:

"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever [including homosexuals] believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life." (John 3:16)

God has provided salvation for everyone including homosexuals. Each person must receive the gift of salvation by faith: "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." (Romans 10:13)

Jesus Christ can and will save you if you will trust in Him. You can be delivered!
